

Buyers Will Forget the Merchant Who Fails To Seek Their Attention

EVENING BULLETIN

3:30 O'CLOCK

PROMOTION BY BULLETIN ADS IS A PAVING PROPOSITION

EDITION

The great art in trade is to gather customers. It is an old story now with prosperous merchants that it is newspaper advertising which stimulates patronage; but old as it is, there are other merchants who have not learned, and go on struggling in a blindly futile way to get trade by every means but the right one. To spend money in advertising in the EVENING BULLETIN is to plant seed for the harvest.

HOUSE.
24th Day—Forenoon Session.
Some of the members of the House are getting very touchy over criticism by the press and are disposed to resent any adverse comment on their actions. They think that what they do is nobody's business but their own. In spite of the fact that they are the representatives of the people, sent here to transact the people's business.
Speaker Holstein, addressing the House this morning, said that he thought some of the members had been very untowardly treated by the newspapers, and he did not think they ought to allow themselves to be influenced by anything the press said about them. Katoeiki hastened to state that newspaper criticism has no effect on him.
Rice stated that since the account of his opposition to Hawaiian measures, he could not go down the street without being pointed out by passers-by, he said that would make no difference in his actions, however, and advised his fellow members to stiffen up their backs and not allow themselves to be influenced by the newspapers or the Promotion Committee.

MAY RESCIND SALARY GRAB.
It seems probable that the House will this afternoon rescind its action of yesterday in raising the pay of County Supervisors from $500 to $900 a year, and will put the salary down again to the old figure. This grab has aroused so much unpleasant comment that some of those who voted for the raise have come to see that they made a false move. As the motion to increase Supervisors salaries carried yesterday by a vote of only 14 to 13, it should not be a difficult proposition to gain a vote or two and put the figure down again to $500.

Farewell Dance For Visitors

This morning 101 of the Los Angeles visitors started on a special train for Wahiawa, where they will be the guests of the pineapple planters, who will show them over their fields and canneries. Arrangements for a lunch, at which pineapples served in various styles will be the main feature, have been made by Mrs. Henry C. Brown. The party is expected to return to the city at about 3 o'clock this afternoon.
While the majority of the party went to Wahiawa, about forty took a trip to the Paik. Some of them had been there last Friday and were so taken with the sight that they wanted to see it again. Others who had not been there before were induced by the glowing descriptions of those who had, to make the trip. Others of the Los Angeles enjoyed trips about town on their own hook.

This evening a dance will be given in honor of the visitors at the Moana hotel. This will be the main event of the reception to the excursionists, and will be something in the way of a farewell party, as there will be no public functions tendered the Los Angeles after this, as it has been decided to let them have tomorrow absolutely.

PASSENGERS CROWD STEAMER ALAMEDA

The Alameda left this morning for the Coast with all passenger accommodations taken up. One hundred and twenty-one cabin passengers were on board and nearly 200 Portuguese occupied the steerage. The Alameda also took a full cargo of freight.

There was a crush on the wharf to see the boat go out and the Hawaiian lei-sellers made money, the passengers being decked with garlands till their faces could hardly be seen. With the music of the band, playing the accustomed airs, the scene was a beautiful one and was enjoyed by many of the excursionists from the Ohio, who came down to say farewell to seven of their party, who went on the Oceanic boat.

WINTER REPORTED DEAD

A report was current on the streets this morning that F. L. Winter, chief deputy United States Marshal of the Territory, had died on the Coast. So far as is known this information is incorrect, though it is known that his condition is very serious and he is not expected to live. Mrs. Winter received a cable yesterday to that effect and asking her to come at once.
Mr. Winter is suffering from Bright's disease, complicated with dropsy. He went to the Coast on January 3 on two months leave for medical treatment.

The "Luna" concert on the Lawn of Peacocks in Kapiolani Park was a success in every respect except one, and that was that the townspeople did not turn out as well as had been expected. The band played under the big banyan tree near the keeper's lodge, benches having been moved over there from Maile Island to accommodate the audience. There was a large number of Los Angeles present, and some Honolulu people did turn out, on foot, in automobiles and carriages, but although James Wilder, who had the affair in charge and had worked like a Trojan to carry it through, the party riders were limited to three, and these arrived late. Wilder's arrangements had been complete and had they been carried out the event would have been a success. That they were not was due entirely to the unreliability of certain parties, who disappointed Wilder.

The sailing date for the Ohio has been set for Friday at 4 p. m. The Los Angeles have prepared for an enjoyable homeward trip, showing their appreciation of Hawaiian music by engaging the Ellis Quintet Club to accompany them on the voyage.

Must Cut Size Of Hospital

Dr. Brinkerhoff, of the Marine Hospital Service, is at present busy making changes in the plans of the proposed leprosy hospital which is to be erected by the Federal Government at Mokulua, so that the cost will come within the appropriation of $75,000 made by Congress. The lowest bid for the work was nearly $15,000 higher than the amount appropriated and as the result Dr. Brinkerhoff has received instructions to recommend plans which will allow a reduction amounting to this sum. In speaking of the matter today, he said:

"I will have to make a good many important recommendations in regard to the plans for the leprosy hospital and many of the features which I hoped to see in the new buildings will have to be eliminated. The most important change will be that we will have to be satisfied with a 20-bed, instead of a 40-bed, hospital. This change must be necessarily made with the instructions which I have been given. Another feature which must be eliminated will be the storage tank for water. While I did not feel that this was absolutely necessary, yet in case of a fire it would be such a great convenience that I am very sorry to see it go. There are many other changes of a similar kind which must be made but which I have not yet worked out."

"Yes, I shall be glad to make the trip to the Mokulua settlement with the legislative party on Sunday if I am invited. I shall be very glad to show the party the plans for the new buildings, their location and other details which they may care to know."

County Supervisors SHERIFF TALKS OF IMPEACHMENT

That Sheriff Laukea was the subject of the executive session held by the Board of Supervisors last night and that his impeachment was considered, is the subject of a good deal of talk in political circles today. What the next action to be taken will be has not been disclosed and until legal advice has been obtained from the County Attorney it is doubtful if anything will be done.

When seen this morning Chairman Hurd of the Board of Supervisors refused to be interviewed on the subject and stated that he could not make any statement at this time. From the manner in which he spoke, however, it could be judged that the matter was only in its first stage and that other developments would follow in the near future.
It is understood that the charge will be made against the County Sheriff that he neglected his duty in that he failed to have officers on hand to guard the prisoners in Judge Robinson's court room last week. Judge Robinson stated from the bench that the County Sheriff was responsible for the case and guarding of the prisoners until they had been confined, and turned over to High Sheriff Heery.

Mahuka Site People Work To Force Road Extension

WANT APPOINTMENT OF ROAD JURY
Institute condemnation proceedings to secure the strip needed on the street and turn it over to the county.
"We have the right to demand that the law which provides that when a petition is signed by forty taxpayers for the opening of a street or the widening of a road, a road commission be appointed, which investigation and reports on the matter, and on whose report the board of supervisors may act. We are now preparing to make such a petition and to the supervisors' (President of Public Works).
Steve did not seem to think that the petition to have one of the Palace Square sites selected would be of much avail.
"First of all I do not think it will have any effect. Whatever effect it does have, I think, will be harmful, as it will tend to strengthen the proposition which Washington street has for some extent about. However, what we want, as to the protest that the selection was made by the board, the signatures should have been made their protest at the public meeting and not after the decision had been made."
The petition, or rather the collection of signatures, by many prominent citizens, in favor of the Palace Square sites, was forwarded to Washington today in the Alameda mail. H. E. Cooper, who circulated it, stated today that the shortness of the time alone prevented the document from including the statements of far more prominent men than it did.
